

bin top Artist in residence

The Bin Top Artist in Residence (BTAR) program will support a developing visual artist to create a body of work for a curated exhibition. This program is designed to support a local artist with no designated workspace who is looking for an opportunity to take their work to a professional level.

The BTAR program provides the artist with:

- Studio space in the Bin Top Studio of the Dawson Creek Art Gallery
- Weekly mentorship sessions from interdisciplinary artist and Emily Carr University of Art +Design alumna Haley Bassett
- Subsistence fee of $150 per week for an eight-week working period ($1,200 total)
- An exhibition honorarium of $500
- A curated exhibition at the Kiwanis Performing Arts Centre
- Free admission to two workshops held at DCAG ($75 value each)
- Free South Peace Arts Society membership renewal

Deadline to apply: January 20, 2021

Notification of results: February 17 2021

For further details and application guidelines visit the Dawson Creek Art Gallery website or email Haley Bassett at programs@dcartgallery.ca
